Developing strong collaborative and artistic skills is essential for the success of any cast/show. Working on these skills is the aim of this assignment/assessment.

You will be given a variety of creative performance prompts that will require collaboration with various members of class, in an effort to develop your skills related to process & performance.

You won't be given a final grade until all performance prompts are complete (which gives you an opportunity for growth.)

Note: The performance prompts are different each semester, based on the strengths/needs of the individual class.
